

Florida Statewide Summit on Equity in Education

Wednesday, July 13

Day 1 provides the opportunity to experience the historical moment surrounding the unveiling of the Dr. Mary McLeod Bethune statue in the U.S. Capitol and to learn about the life and legacy of Dr. Bethune

| | |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|
| 10:00-11:00am Program Introduction | FIU in DC |
| 11:00am-noon Statue Unveiling Stream & Lunch | FIU in DC |
| 1:00-1:45pm Meet & Greet / Tour with Office of Rep. Frederica Wilson | U.S. Capitol |
| 2:00-4:00pm Mary McLeod Bethune Symposium | U.S. Capitol |
| 4:00-6:30pm Dinner, Hotel Check-In & Change for Tour | FIU in DC & Hotel |
| 7:00-8:30pm Black History on the National Mall Tour & Discussion | National Mall |

Thursday, July 14

Day 2 prepares students to follow in Dr. Bethune’s footsteps as champions of educational equity through discussions of policy issues, and how to use effective communications and their leaderships skills to stay engaged on the campus, state, and national levels.

| | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| 9:30am-11:00am Equity in Education Roundtable Lodriguez Murray, Senior Vice President, United Negro College Fund Wil Del Pilar, Vice President, The Education Trust | FIU in DC |
| 11:00-12:30p Effective Communication in Policy Advocacy | FIU in DC |
| 12:00-1:00p Lunch | FIU in DC |
| 1:00-2:30pm Policy Hack | FIU in DC |
| 2:30-4:00pm Student Leader Idea Exchange | FIU in DC |